

TRANS-ASIA

Cagayan de Oro-Iligan Corridor Master Plan

Master Planning of the Northern Mindanao Corridor

Client

United States Agency for International Development

Project

Cagayan de Oro-Iligan Corridor Master Plan

Location

Mindanao Philippines

Project Period

Start April 1990
End December 1991

Project Description

The project's objective is to develop a comprehensive Master Plan for Cagayan de Oro City, Iligan City and nineteen municipalities that comprise the northern Mindanao Corridor.

Critical program sectors to be studied, developed and expanded under the Master Plan are (1) roads, bridges, communications and other infrastructures; (2) agricultural and natural resources; (3) industries; (4) urban design and development programs; (5) social development programs; (6) environmental impact; (7) recreation; (8) waste facilities; (9) Planning, financing, staffing and physical resources.

Scope of Services

Trans-Asia, in association with LBII, Globetrotters Engineering Corp., & GHT Services, Inc. was awarded the contract to provide Consultancy Services to undertake the Master Planning of the project.

Making
Technology
Work