

TRANS-ASIA

Construction of Airstrip and Repaving of Access Road for the Voice of America

Detailed Engineering Services of an Airstrip and Access Road

Client

U.S. Embassy in Manila

Project

Construction of Airstrip and Repaving of Access Road for the Voice of America

Location

Tarlac, Philippines

Project Period

Start May 1993

End December 1995

Project Description

The Project is a transmitter station located in Concepcion, Tarlac approximately 100 kilometers from Metro Manila. The compound has an approximate area of 1,000 hectares which consists of buildings, such as, the Main Transmitter Building, Auxillary Building, Security/Contractor Building, among others, and an existing gravel paved airstrip.

Scope of Services

Trans-Asia rendered the Architectural-Engineering Services covering the following:

- Preparation of Investigation Report
- Detailed Engineering Design of the Proposed Airstrip
- Upgrading/Rehabilitation of the Existing Access Road

Making
Technology
Work