

TRANS-ASIA

Environmental Management of Roads

Environmental Impact Assessment of Roads and Bridges

Client

Ministry of Transmigration

Project

Environmental Management of Roads

Location

Jakarta Indonesia

Project Period

Start November 1990

End August 1991

Project Description

The Purpose of the technical assistance is to strengthen the capability of the Directorate General of Highways (DGH) for environmental assessment and management to ensure that the road projects under DGH are planned, designed and implemented in accordance with sound environmental practices and that such projects meet the environmental requirements stipulated in the government 's regulations. The technical assistance is to be carried out by a Consortium team that included two environmental engineers and an environmental management specialist.

Scope of Services

Trans-Asia undertook the preparation of manuals for Implementing Environmental Impact Control Measures in Road and Bridge Projects.

Making
Technology
Work