

TRANS-ASIA

Productivity Center and Resettlement Area (for Mt. Pinatubo Victims)

Engineering Design of a Resettlement Area

Client

Department of Public Works and Highways

Project

Productivity Center and Resettlement Area (for Mt. Pinatubo victims)

Location

Pampanga, Philippines

Project Period

Start February 1992
End December 1998

Project Description

The Project involved the site development of the 85 hectares of resettlement area located in Floridablanca, Pampanga and the construction of the productivity center which included community buildings such as schools, market, gymnasium, townhall, police and fire stations, day care center, clinic and administration building and civil works, such as, deep well drilling, elevated water tanks and water supply system, roads and drainage system, etc..

Scope of Services

Trans-Asia provided Detailed Engineering Design Services for the Site Development of the 85 Hectares Resettlement Area as well as Construction Management and Engineering Services for the following subprojects:

- Townhall, Police Station Fire Station
- Administration Bldg/Outfall No. 1
- Water Supply Distribution and Drilling of Deep Wells
- Primary School
- Secondary School
- Administrative Bldg., Canteen, Guardhouse and Perimeter Fence
- Market/ Talipapa
- Day Care Center

- Ten-Bed Clinic
- Productivity Center
- Three (3) Elevated Water Tanks

Parcellary and Subdivision Survey for a total of 4009 residential lots with an average of 94 square meters each was also provided by Trans-Asia.

Making
Technology
Work