

TRANS-ASIA

Transmigration V: Second Stage Development Program

Engineering Works of a Transmigration Settlement

Client

Ministry of Transmigration

Project

Transmigration V: Second Stage Development Program

Location

Jambi, Indonesia

Project Period

Start March 1986

End March 1990

Project Description

The Ministry of Transmigration of the Government of Indonesia through its Second Stage Development Program which covered feasibility analysis and planning sought new settlement sites for 300,000 transmigrant families in Sumatra, Kalimantan and Irian Java. The program geared for the improvement of the existing settlements.

Scope of Services

Trans-Asia provided environmental and sociological studies, technical and engineering feasibility, financial and economic analysis. Services also included topographic surveys; soil investigations; surveying and mapping; and, training and transfer of technology.

Making
Technology
Work